Our Story

Widely acclaimed as one of the best country golf courses in New South Wales, the Club is a unique experience on and off the course.

The Wagga Wagga Country Club is aware of its critical role in strengthening and connecting communities. Our club and course are a destination – not just to play golf, but to connect with friends and family and feel a part of a community.

Annually the club partners with many local charities and lends its course and services for the purpose of raising monies to support local community members and causes.

In 2023/24 - Pillars of Strength, Legacy, Grace Fellows Trust Charity, Good Talk 32, The Sarah Lloyd Scholarship Fund, HIA, The Peter McLay Charity, The Forrest Centre, Challenge, Can Assist and Carevan were amongst the charitable partnerships the club engaged in.

A Message from a Corporate Sponsor

“The golf club provides an unique environment to network with key business leaders, influencers, and potential clients. Regular events such as golf tournaments, charity outings, and social gatherings offer invaluable face-to-face interactions with decision-makers from a range of industries. These opportunities have significantly broadened our business connections. Supporting a respected community institution like The Wagga Wagga Country Club has aligned our brand with a sense of local prestige and social responsibility. Through our partnership, we have been able to sponsor charity events and tournaments that give back to the community, enhancing our company’s image as a dedicated corporate citizen.

Through regular engagement with the club’s members, our company has built trust and loyalty with a highly sought-after customer base. The association with Wagga Wagga Country Club has not only reinforced our brand’s reputation for excellence but also generated tangible business results, with new leads and repeat clients.

It is a mutually beneficial relationship that has yielded considerable marketing and networking advantages. We highly recommend considering a sponsorship with this prestigious institution as it offers a unique platform to elevate your brand and connect with an influential audience.”
